

Jack Batievsky

When Jack Batievsky passed away suddenly in early December 2002, the International Bar Association lost a dear friend and colleague. Jack, a dedicated professional and extremely well regarded lawyer, contributed tremendously to the development of the International Bar Association. For a number of years, he was the representative of the Colegio de Abogados de Lima to the IBA Council, and was the Chair of the Section on Business Law's Professional Development Committee and the Latin American and Caribbean Forum, organising several training courses for young lawyers and a successful Conference in Cuzco, Peru in 2002.

Rogelio de la Guardia

Rogelio, a very enthusiastic member of the Latin American Regional Forum, passed away in June 2009. He served as Chair of the forum from 2003–4 and formed part of the generation of Latin lawyers who, over the past 15 years, have been most supportive in promoting the IBA throughout the Latin American region – resulting in the creation of the Latin American Regional Forum itself. Rogelio undertook the enormous task of organising, with great success, the 5th Regional Conference which took place in Panama City, in March 2004. He also worked with Jack Batievsky in the organisation of the Cuzco Regional Conference. A very good friend to many of us at the IBA, Rogelio was a leading corporate tax lawyer in Panama. Under his leadership and after, Rogelio put a lot of effort into the development and proliferation of the successful activities of the IBA throughout the region, including the Tax Committee.

The Rogelio de la Guardia Scholarship is kindly sponsored by Arias, Fábrega & Fábrega where Rogelio was partner from 1990–2009.

International Bar Association Jack Batievsky Scholarship and Rogelio de la Guardia Scholarship

Biennial IBA Latin American Regional Forum Conference

14–16 March 2018, Hyatt Regency Hotel and Intercontinental Presidente Hotel, Mexico City, Mexico

Scholarship

The IBA Latin American Regional Forum is delighted to announce that two scholarships will be awarded to two young lawyers who wish to participate in this IBA conference, but who are unable to do so owing to financial constraint.

This conference has become the ideal opportunity for all lawyers, professionals and investors to keep up-to-date with significant developments in the region. As Latin America continues to develop as one of the world's most important emerging markets, conference delegates will examine current developments and discuss how the region will tackle challenges facing both Latin America and elsewhere.

The IBA therefore invites interested persons to apply for a scholarship, which will cover registration, provide a contribution towards travel and accommodation costs to attend the conference and social events as well as a ticket to the Closing Party on 16 March.

All applications received by 4 DECEMBER 2017 will be submitted to the Scholarship Committee and each candidate must meet the requirements set out in the criteria overleaf.

The application must be accompanied by a 2,500 word paper in English on one of the following topics:

- Antitrust: a new era in the battle for control over consumers' information
- Beyond Lava Jato and the Panama Papers
- Innovation, startups and intellectual property management
- Protectionism in M&A transactions
- Tax evasion, elusion and money laundering
- Technology and the future of real estate
- The growth of green energy
- Traditional banking v crowdfunding
- What will stay the same in alternative dispute resolution?
